HUMOR CORNER:

A farmer and his pig were driving down the road when a cop pulled him over. The cop asked the farmer, "Didn't you know it is against the law to ride with a pig in the front of your truck?"

The farmer replied, "No, I didn't know that." The cop asked the farmer where he was going and he said, "To Memphis".

The cop said, "I will let you off the hook this time if you promise to take the pig to the zoo when you get to Memphis." So the farmer promised he would.

Several days later the cop spotted the farmer with the pig driving down the road and he pulled him over again. The cop said "I thought I told you to take this pig to the zoo when you got to Memphis."

The farmer replied, "I did, and we had so much fun, I am taking him to Kings Island now".

PASTOR'S NOTE: Having a heart full of goodness....

An interpersonal relationship is what brings out the real character of a person. It is in the way one deals with, treats and cares for others that one gets to know what is in the heart of a person. That is why Jesus insists on growing in love and having an eye that can see the good in others and a mouth that can bring out the best in others. In order for us to be people who see the good in others, we have to be ready to look within first, and work on our own shortcomings and failures in true humility.
