PASTOR'S NOTE: A shepherd who knows his sheep... Jesus has described himself as the Good Shepherd when he was alive. And after his resurrection from the dead, we are reminded of the great love and dedication of this good shepherd. He now gives the sheep not just an ordinary life, but eternal life. He is the one who knows his sheep and he will not abandon his sheep. Where he goes, is where we will all who follow him go.

Congratulations & God's blessings on all the students that received "First Holy Communion"
