HUMOR CORNER

Marriage jokes...

This man was really lonely, so he posted an ad on a popular website. The ad said, simply: "Wife wanted."

He was surprised the next morning to find he had over a hundred replies in his inbox. Unfortunately, they all said the same thing: "You can have mine."
*****

Son: Dad, I've heard that in some parts of the world a man doesn't know his wife until he marries her.

Father: Son, that's true everywhere.
*****

If a man opens the car door for his wife, you can be sure of one thing — either the car is new or the wife is.
*****

Ah, marriage. I was standing in front of the bathroom mirror one evening admiring my reflection, when I posed this question to my wife of 30 years: "Will you still love me when I'm old, fat, and balding?" She answered, "I do."

Mass at St. Joseph's Church

Gussettville,
Sunday, October
14th
9:30 a.m.

PASTOR'S NOTE: The unbreakable bond of love.... Marriage is a sacrament that signifies and embodies the unbreakable love with which God loves humanity. The love that graces the lives of married couples is the love that enabled the creation of the universe. God created the suitable partners that men and women are called to honor forever. God knew what was meant for the well being of both man and woman and thus he created them to be one in love. This love is rooted in the willingness to respect and care for the partner, and never to seek to do things from a selfish point of view. The moment selfishness sets in, it ruins the sanctity of marriage. Love, as God intended it, is an invitation to gift oneself to the other, not just for the well being of the other, but also for the enrichment of oneself. When such a love becomes the hallmark of married life, there will be greater joy and contentment in the lives of people. True love, as envisioned by Jesus, can never be broken, nor abused.
